Who are The Friends

A charitable organisation established in 1973, The Friends of The Australian Ballet (New South Wales) aims to:

- Assist The Australian Ballet financially in areas beyond the normal scope of Government subsidy
- Advance ballet and the art of dancing and provide ballet lovers with the fullest opportunity to broaden their appreciation and experience of ballet
- Provide scholarships and bursaries for promising dancers and choreographers
- Facilitate communication between The Australian Ballet and its audience
- Promote new works through ballet, musical theatre and other performing art forms
- Encourage young people to attend and participate in ballet.

Friends of The Australian Ballet NSW would like to thank Bloch for their on-going support, especially in promoting our Youth Membership Programme
